They returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread. - Lk 24:33-35

Regresaron a Jerusalén, donde encontraron reunidos a los Once con sus compañeros, los cuales les dijeron: "De veras a resucitado el Señor y se le ha aparecido a Simón". Entonces ellos contaron lo que les había pasado por el camino y cómo lo habían reconocido al partir el pan. – Lc 24, 33-35

Vayamos de Emaús a Jerusalén

El domingo pasado, Dios quiso hablarnos, a través de Su Santa Iglesia, de Su Divina Misericordia, y muchos escucharon cuan misericordioso es Dios. Cuando nos encontramos confundidos, tristes, y desanimados, Cristo Resucitado, mas que nunca, desea recordarnos de Su promesa misericordiosa: “Yo estoy con vosotros todos los días, hasta el fin del mundo.” (Mt 28:20) Esto fue lo que sucedió con los discípulos de Emaús. La muerte de Jesús era una realidad tan difícil para ellos, que se llenaron de gran confusión, tristeza y desánimo. En vez de quedarse en Jerusalén que significa “ciudad de paz”, ellos se van a Emaús que significa “pueblo despreciado.” No podemos permitir que los problemas de la vida nos lleven de las cosas de Dios (Jerusalén) a las cosas del mundo (Emaús). Jesús, rico en misericordia, se acerca a ellos porque hablaban de El, quién prometió: “donde dos o tres están reunidos en Mi nombre, allí estoy Yo en medio de ellos.” (Mt 18:20) La sabiduría, la alegría y la presencia de Jesús comenzó a trabajar en ellos de tal manera que, al final, no solo echó fuera la confusión, la tristeza y el desánimo causados por la dificultad que afrontaban, sino que, con el nuevo testimonio de haber tenido un encuentro personal y verdadero con Jesús, regresan a Jerusalén. Ahí, ellos predicán y proclaman con palabras ungidas, y llena de la sabiduría, la alegría y del espíritu, no de hombre, sino de Dios, que “¡de veras ha resucitado el Señor!”

Let Us Go From Emmaus to Jerusalem

Last Sunday, God wished to speak to us, through His holy Church, about His Divine Mercy, and many heard how merciful God is. When we find ourselves confused, sad, and discouraged, our Risen Christ, more than ever, desires to remind us of His merciful promise: “I am with you always, until the end of the age.” (Mt 28:20) This is what happened to the disciples of Emmaus. The death of Jesus was such a difficult reality for them that they were filled with confusion, sadness and discouragement. Instead of staying in Jerusalem, which means “city of peace”, they go to Emmaus, which means “despised village.” We cannot permit that our life’s problems lead us from the things of God (Jerusalem) to the things of the world (Emmaus). Jesus, rich in mercy, draws near to them because they were speaking about Him, who promised: “where two or three are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of them.” (Mt 18:20) The wisdom, the joy and the presence of Jesus began to work in them in such a way that, in the end, not only did it cast out the confusion, sadness and discouragement caused by the difficulty they were facing, but also, with the new testimony of having had a personal and true encounter with Jesus, return to Jerusalem. There, they preached and proclaimed with anointed words, and filled with the wisdom, joy and spirit, not of man, but of God, that “the Lord has truly be raised!”
