Quien Nos llamó Nos Envía

Como en aquellos tiempos, hoy día Jesús sigue mirando con gran compasión a la humanidad que sufre en este valle de lagrimas. El ser humano vive en este mundo que es temporal, pero fue creado para la eternidad. Cristo, el Buen Pastor, vino en busca de la oveja perdida, la raza humana, para llevarla al Reino de los Cielos, donde se goza la alegría eterna. Quizás pensando en estas cosas, se dirige a los doce - como luego si dirigirá a unos setenta dos, y a nosotros a través de ellos - y les dice, "La mies es abundante, pero los trabajadores son pocos; rogad, pues, al Señor de la mies que mande trabajadores a Su mies." (Evangelio: Mt. 9:36 - 10:8) Hoy, la Iglesia necesita que sus miembros se levante, en el nombre de Jesús, y le diga al Padre Celestial, "he me aquí, Señor, haz conmigo como Tu quieras." Hay mucho trabajo que hacer para el Reino de Dios, y cada persona puede contribuir en Su obra. Al ser bautizado, cada cristiano ha recibido dones especiales de servicio, que puede y debe desarrollar con la ayuda del Espíritu Santo, para consolar, exhortar, y edificar a todos los que han sido llamado por el Señor. Dios quiere que todos se salven, y cada Bautizado tiene la responsabilidad de proclamar que hay un Dios vivo que nos ama y que quiere tener una relación especial con cada persona. Hoy día muchos servidores están muy cansados y agobiados porque están haciendo el trabajo que otros deberían hacer. Cooperemos en la obra Divina y preguntemos "¿Dónde se necesita mi servicio?"

He Who Called Us Sends Us

As in those days, today Jesus' heart continues to be moved with pity as He looks upon humanity in their suffering. Man lives in this world, which is temporary, but was created for eternity. Christ, the Good Shepherd, came in search of the lost sheep, the human race, to take her to the Kingdom of God, where there is everlasting joy. As He thought about these things, he says to the Twelve - just as He will say to the Seventy Two, and to us through them - "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." (Gospel: Mt 9:36 - 10:8) Today, the Church needs its members to rise up and, in the name of Jesus, say to the Heavenly Father, "Here I am, Lord, do with me as You will." There is a lot of work in God's Kingdom, and every person can contribute in His work. In being baptized, every Christian has received special gifts of service, that can and should be developed with the help of the Holy Spirit, to console, exhort, and edify all who have been called by the Lord. God wants all to be saved, and the Baptized has the responsibility of proclaiming that there is a living God that loves us all and that wants to have a special relationship with each one of us. Today, many servants of God are very overloaded with work and are exhausted because they are doing the service that others should be doing. Let us cooperate in the Divine work and ask, "Where is my service needed?"

At the sight of the crowds, Jesus' heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." - Mt 9:36-38

Al ver Jesús a las multitudes, se compadecía de ellas, porque estaban extenuadas y desamparadas, como ovejas sin pastor. Entonces dijo a sus discípulos: "La cosecha es mucha y los trabajadores pocos. Rueguen, por tanto, al dueño de la mies que envíe trabajadores a sus campos". - Mt 9, 36-38
